BURTON BRONSON VAN WAGONER

Bishop of the Midway First Ward. Sustained 1955.

Burton Bronson Van Wagoner was the first child born May 26, 1907, to Joseph Monroe Van Wagoner and Edith Agnes Bronson, at Midway, Wasatch County. Blessed July 7, 1907, by William L. Van Wagoner, baptized June 20, 1915 by Joseph Monroe Van Wagoner, and confirmed June 20, 1915, by John Van Wagoner, Jr. Ordained a Deacon by George T. Watkins, October 21, 1919, a Teacher by John Van Wagoner, Jr., February 12, 1922, Elder by George F. Ryan, September 18, 1927, Seventy by Alma Sonne, November 19, 1951, High Priest by Clifford E. Young, Assistant to the Council of the Twelve May 5, 1955.

Married Lorna Elizabeth Watkins October 4, 1927 in the Salt Lake Temple by Joseph Christenson. They have four children: Harvey Burton, married to Dorothy Street; George Doyle, married to Betty Lou Baird; Joseph Dallas and Madelyn.

Burton has been a faithful Church member, was a ward teacher, worked at the LDS baptismal font once a week for eight and a half years. Was sustained as Bishop of the Midway First Ward, Wasatch Stake, April 24, 1955. He directed the work of building a new chapel for the ward.

He was a scout committeeman and was one of the directors and vice presidents of the Wasatch, Summit Knife and Fork Club.

Burton is a very successful businessman. He is beloved by the members of his ward for his generosity, understanding and devotion.

Leland Ivers and Ray Pyper are Bishop Van Wagoner's Counselors and LaVon Hair is the ward clerk.

Lorna VanWagoner came home from the hospital Monday tired, but improved, after suffering with pneumonia. Becky Johnson and John Hair are there also with pneumonia.

Have you noticed the change in the color of the trees, the moon rise Saturday evening and the setting of the full faced moon Sunday morning.
